TENTH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

Gospel: Mark 3:20-35

Jesus seems to totally ignore his family. Hearing that they are calling out to him, Jesus says, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers." (Gospel) Some have taken this speech as Jesus rejecting Mary and his other relatives. Actually it is a statement of Jesus' mission. He is showing that the most important reason for life is the love of God and of one's neighbors, as opposed to the easy and presumably self-enclosed way of staying home where relatives will take care of you. Growth in the biblical kind of love must come from God. As Jesus says: "whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." He is widening our life-search to include others, not indeed instead of the family but including the family in the overall purpose of life itself: letting in the love of God and passing it along to everyone we know.

-John Foley, SJ

Thank you ❤️

Special thank you goes out to all the well wishes for my announcement about a six year renewal of my appointment to St. Marks and St. James. I appreciate all the comments, smiles, applause, prayers, messages, post, hugs, and words of encouragement, and letters to the bishop on my behalf, and everything else! This is very good news for not just me, but for our community! I am humbled by the experience. The people here are the best!

JUBILEE YEAR 2025

"Hope" is the central message of this very special year that occurs every 25 years.

"May the Jubilee year, beginning on Christmas Eve, 2024 be an opportunity to be renewed in Hope!" ~ Pope Francis.

In preparation of the Jubilee, this year, 2024 is to be a year of prayer. Pope Francis states, "This year will be dedicated to a great symphony of prayer." The pope encourages us to desire to be in the Lord's presence, to listen to Him, and to adore Him. Our prayer activity, both individual and communal prayer, will prepare us to be people of hope.

WELCOME THROUGH THE SAVING WATERS OF BAPTISM

We welcome though the saving waters of Holy Baptism,

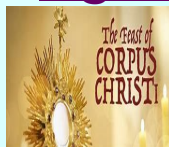

PHOEBE ARLENE GARVEY

daughter of

Mr. & Mrs. Brandon & Jackie Richnafsky Garvey

Lord, pour your blessing on all your people, and especially on this child in her baptism today. May your joy be in her heart, your grace be in her words, your love be in her hands and your peace be in her soul. Amen.
